Question #1

A small carton of orange juice holds 24 ounces of juice. A large carton holds 12 more ounces than the small carton. Write an equation that shows J, how many ounces of juice are in a small and large carton combined?

Answer

Answer #1

24+24+12=J

Choose Points!

Question #2

There are 178 boys and 212 girls at summer camp this year. Create a strip diagram to represent the number of kids at summer camp.

Answer

Answer #2

178	212
Kids at Camp

Choose Points!

Question #3

There are 24 packs of crayons in a classroom. Each pack has 8 crayons in it. Write an equation showing C, the number of crayons found in all the packs.

Answer

Answer #3

24×8=C

Choose Points!